Casualty Actuarial Society: Leading the Way in General Insurance

World's only actuarial organization focused exclusively on general insurance credentialing, education, and research.

100+ year track record in educating general insurance actuaries, leading to ACAS and FCAS Credentials.

Our basic education courses & exams develop skills that can be immediately and directly applied to the candidates' daily work.

We are a vibrant, growing community with deep and extensive resources to help CAS members, candidates, and students advance their careers.

CAS – A Global Society of General Insurance Actuaries

- As of Oct 25, 17% of CAS candidates (excluding ACAS) and 6.2% of CAS members are located outside of the U.S., Canada, or Bermuda.
- Members are located in 47 countries, active candidates in 53 countries.

What is a General Insurance (Property & Casualty) Actuary?

● What are the benefits of pursuing CAS credentials?

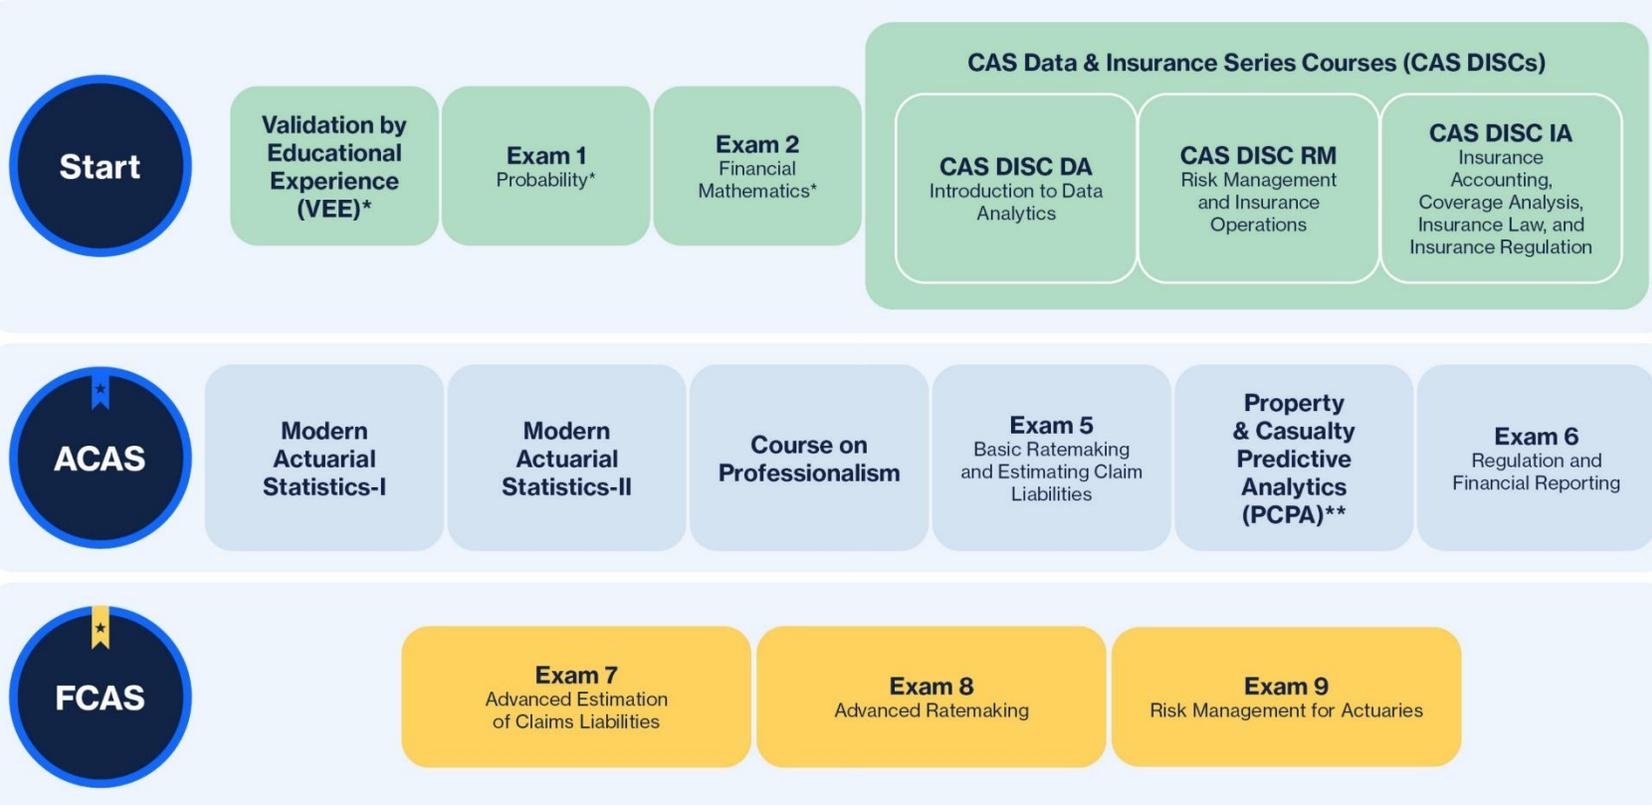

- ✓ Content is practical and highly relevant. The new skills can be immediately applied to candidate's day-to-day work.
- ✓ The CAS's General Insurance focus equips candidates with deep specialized knowledge that directly aligns with industry needs.
- ✓ Provides employers with proof of employees advanced technical expertise and professional commitment.
- ✓ The ACAS and FCAS designations are globally recognized and respected.

Educational Journey

Actuarial candidates must pass a series of exams to become credentialed property and casualty actuaries and CAS members. The requirements outlined here will help guide you to the highly coveted Associate (ACAS) and Fellow (FCAS) designations.

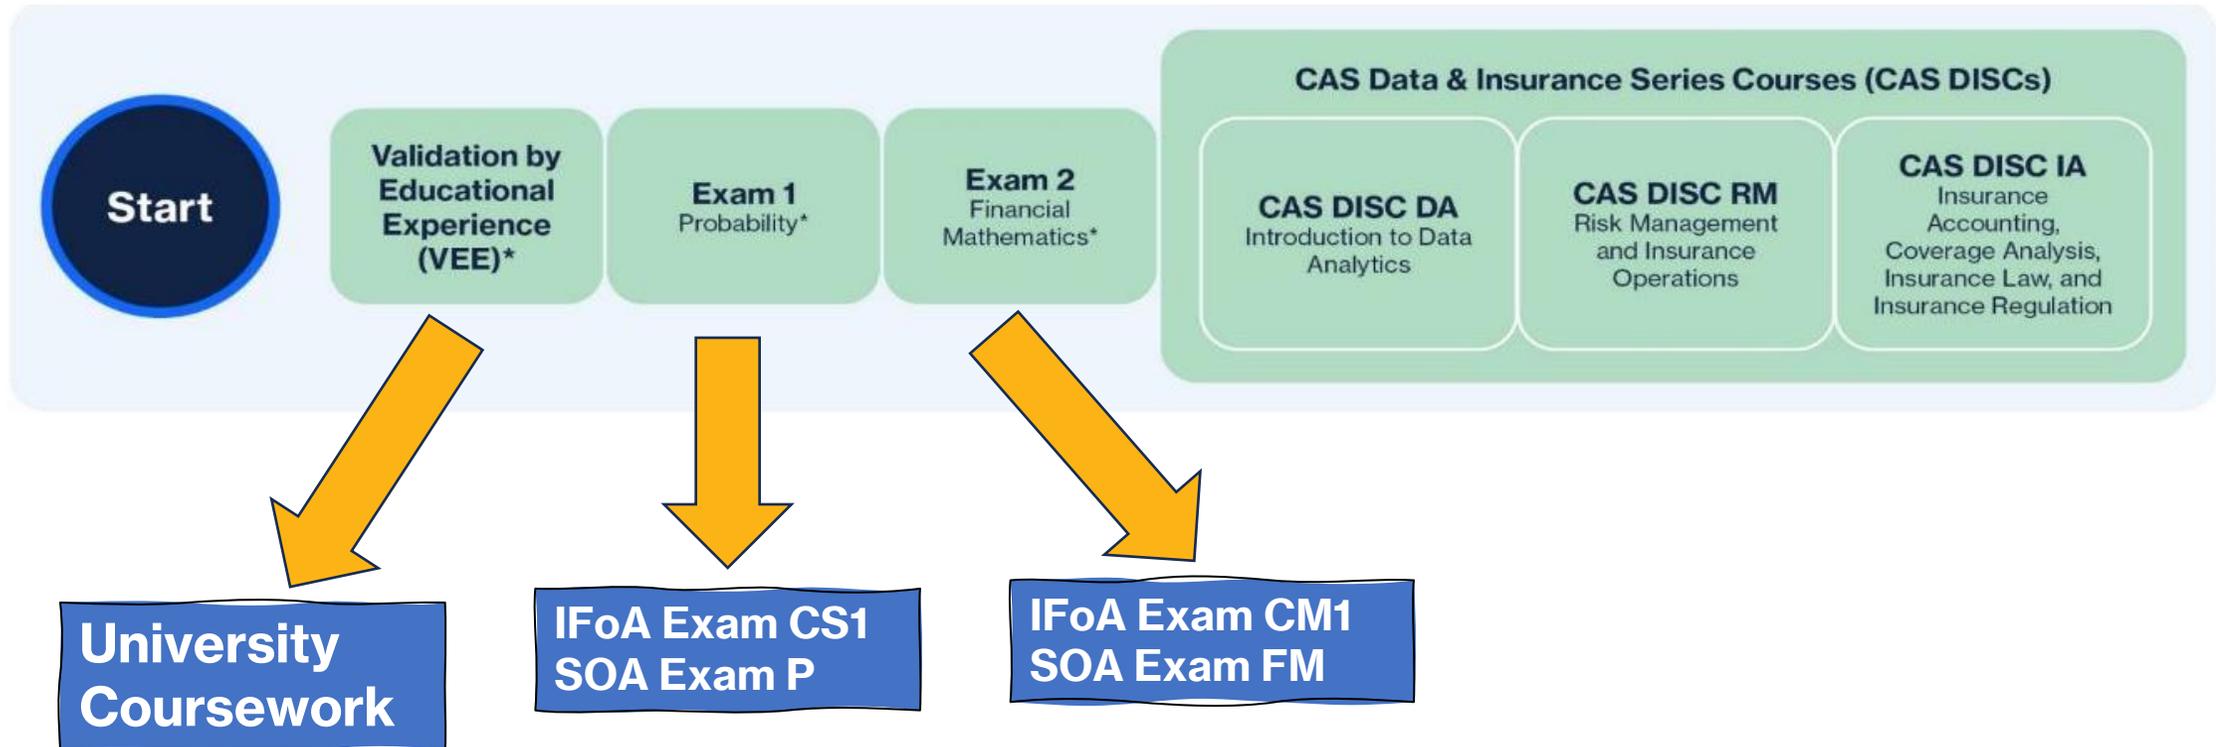

*The CAS will grant waivers for candidates who pass examinations offered by other organizations that cover our CAS learning objectives.

 PCPA will be required for the ACAS credential starting January 1, 2026.
